DISSENTING CONTEST

Senator Harding Opposes Bringing Personal File Into Campaign.
By Associated Press.
CINCINNATI, Ohio, July 1.—"Well, the South Atlantic is coming into its own," said Senator Harding as he stepped into the Administration building today to his residence, for his first talk to the newspaper men.

"We are sure to have a newspaper man for President," said the Senator, "and for the first time in history. You will notice my telegram congratulating the Governor that I referred to a certain printed some time ago in many of the newspapers. It amused me very much. It represented two newsmen quarreling as to which should carry papers to the White House. Well, there won't be any quarrel between us personally, and the country will decide which of the newsmen is to carry the White House papers."

HARDING FAVORITE

Noting 2-to-1 on Republican Presidential Nominee.
By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, July 1.—After the nomination of Governor Cox as the Democratic candidate for the presidency today, Wall Street turned its attention to betting on the chances of being elected. Senator Harding was immediately made a strong 2-to-1 favorite, according to James W. Ball & Co., who expect to handle a large number of betting commissions of this character from now on until election day. Fred Schumm of Brooklyn, who also placed a large number of wagers, also made Senator Harding a 2-to-1 favorite over Governor Cox and said he had $5,000 to place on Harding but that there was an entire absence of Cox money. THURSDAY EVENING, JULY 8, 1920.

BUT ONE CHOICE.

To those Democrats who have been looking for a candidate for Governor, the Republican nomination of Senator Johnson, of California, is a disappointment. It is not the candidate they wanted, but it is the only one they have.

With that disappointment, which is characteristic of the former governor of California, the clear choice of the people is not the candidate they wanted, but it is the only one they have.

The Democrats at San Francisco have made the country safe for Harding. They have made the country safe for Harding.

There are indications that the development of the McKeen campaign is in the hands of the party. They have made the country safe for Harding.

The issue finally comes from the form of Congress to the final election of the American people. The overwhelming question in the campaign, therefore, is whether we enter the massed ranks of European and Asiatic politics and diplomacy and become a part of the cynical imperialism of the old world, or whether we remain the free people of the new world, independent, unshackled, and free to live our lives as we see fit.

Everything the San Francisco platform said or purposely evaded saying, every act of that body and particularly its nomination of a candidate for Governor, is a direct challenge to the truth of Senator Johnson's declaration that there is, indeed, "but one choice" for American voters and that is to support the Republican ticket. This they will do with a unanimity that will make Wilsonism an ended chapter in American history.

CANDIDATE FAILED.

The same old story is going to be told again. The same old story is going to be told again. The same old story is going to be told again.

Later, when indulging some of the pleasures which frequent interviews have been bringing, the "unhappy" members of the delegation, O'Brien made revelation of a very dark secret when, addressing the much perturbed chief, Barefoot, he said:

"We've smoked you out. You're a dry man and we know it now. You have been traveling under false pretenses and have been carrying concealed weapons. You are going to be tried for what Palmer would do if he were on the floor."

Verily, an "unhappy" convention is a poor place to practice facing both ways on any issue.

WHY HARDING VOTED FOR WAR

In his speech on the war resolution in the Senate in April, Senator Harding said: "I am not voting for war in the name of democracy. I want it known to the people of my state and to the nation that I am voting for war tonight for the maintenance of just American rights, which is the first essential to the preservation of the soul of this Republic."

Senator Harding was not moved by sentimental considerations, nor by President Wilson's oft-repeated claim that the United States entered the war to make the world safe for democracy.

Senator Harding reflected the sentiment of a vast majority of the American people, and he told the truth. He is of the same opinion still.

Historic utterance by A. Mitchell Palmer, when explaining the defeat of "Joe" Kelley by Judge Bonawill for the gubernatorial nomination in Pennsylvania in 1918, the then, as now, much vanquished Barefoot, sought refuge in the strangely truthful declaration: "The Democratic party is weak. Having elected their support to the San Francisco nominee the very natural presumption is that Palmer's speech was a masterpiece of equal respect to the Pennsylvania delegation."

The trait's end for the Democrats will be at the White House, Washington, D. C.

The Department of Justice, to maintain its reputation as ruthless pursuer of deportables, should instantly trace down the bomber of the Palmer boom.

The Democratic nominee having refused to conduct a "front porch campaign" in the country to witness the spectacle of another "Coxey Army" march to Washington?

The Democrats at San Francisco rendered one last service. They have made the country safe for Harding and Coolidge.

Butkin township has shown an appreciation of the sacrifices of its sons in the war and other communities could follow with equal credit.

With the political convictions out of the way, the country, including the candidates, should now get down to work again.

East Park residents think it might be a good thing to include that section of the city in the territory to be paved with asphalt, but with a change in the lettering as to read, "No Sparking Here."

There are indications that the development of the McKeen campaign is in the hands of the party. They have made the country safe for Harding.

THE WEIRDEST HALLUCINATION

New York Sun and Herald. The weirdest political hallucination that ever has been mortal man is the hallucination of a minority party of Democrats, who are waiting for the United States to make a free gift of the government, their rights and their rights to minorities and minorities across the seas.

Mr. W. G. Campbell of Butler, Tenn., says: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy for summer complaint in children. It is far ahead of anything I have ever used for this purpose."—Adv.

Loss of Appetite.

As a general rule, there is nothing serious about a loss of appetite, and if you skip a meal or only eat two meals a day for a few days you will soon have a relish for your meals when meal time comes. Bear in mind that at least five hours should always elapse between meals so as to give the food ample time to digest and the stomach a period of rest before a second meal is taken. Then if you eat no more than you crave and take a reasonable amount of outdoor exercise every day you will not need to worry about your appetite. When the loss of appetite caused by constipation is as often the case, that should be corrected at once. A dose of Chamberlain's Tablets will do—Adv.

PLENTY STARS FOR OLYMPIC

formances, and when you consider the number of available athletes in other parts of the country who are yet to be tried, you can see why the Olympic committee feels confident that the United States will continue to maintain its supremacy in track and field athletics at the coming Antwerp meet."

The Red Sox have sold many star pastures in the past, but they held fast to Harry Hooper, whose brilliant playing this season has done so much to offset the loss of the old stars.
